Paul and the Gift John M. G. Barclay, 2017-09-11 John Barclay explores Pauline theology anew from the perspective of grace. Arguing that Paul's theology of grace is best approached in light of ancient notions of gift, Barclay describes Paul's relationship to Judaism in a fresh way. Barclay focuses on divine gift-giving, which for Paul, he says, is focused and fulfilled in the gift of Christ. He both offers a new appraisal of Paul's theology of the Christ-event as gift as it comes to expression in Galatians and Romans and presents a nuanced and detailed consideration of the history of reception of Paul, including Augustine, Luther, Calvin, and Barth.

Encourage Yourself in the Lord Dr. Natalie H. Ragland, 2018-02-01 This yearlong devotional is filled with personal experiences, practical life lessons, spiritual maturation, and biblical content wrapped up into a very detailed journey which many can relate to. The goal of this book is to allow readers the opportunity for self-reflection, draw others closer to God, and for them to allow God to use them to their highest potential with the most important conquest to fulfill their own purpose and spiritual assignment.

Between Sundays Marla Frederick, 2003-11-20 To be a black woman of faith in the American South is to understand and experience spirituality in a particular way. How this understanding expresses itself in everyday practices of faith is the subject of Between Sundays, an innovative work that takes readers beyond common misconceptions and narrow assumptions about black religion and into the actual complexities of African American women's spiritual lives. Gracefully combining narrative, interviews, and analysis, this book explores the personal, political, and spiritual commitments of a group of Baptist women whose experiences have been informed by the realities of life in a rural, southern community. In these lives, spirituality emerges as a space for creative agency, of vital importance to the ways in which these women interpret, inform, and reshape their social conditions—conditions often characterized by limited access to job opportunities, health care, and equitable schooling. In the words of these women, and in Marla F. Frederick's deft analysis, we see how spirituality—expressed as gratitude, empathy, or righteous discontent—operates as a transformative power in women's interactions with others, and in their own more intimate renegotiations of self.
