A Book about Mom with Words and Pictures by Me Workman Publishing,2021-03-30 Dear Mom, Keep this book forever to remember all the reasons why I love you. Every page has a heartwarming, imaginative (and sometimes cheeky!) prompt—a sentence to finish or an illustration to complete—to help kids capture everything they know and love about their parent, from their favorite things to do together to what kind of pizza topping they would be. A sheet of illustrated stickers gives kids even more ways to customize the work! Each book starts with a letter to parent from child, and then the fun begins, from: Your favorite animal is _____. You are terrified of _____! To: I wrote a story about you. Want to read it together? To: Look! I drew a picture of us on an intergalactic space adventure! And finally: This is us, having the greatest adventure ever. I love you, Mom!

And these are projects for things kids want to make—and keep—from a juice-box owl to a pirate ship to a curio cabinet for displaying all of their treasures, plus games, jewelry, and more. Also included in the book are basic crafting lessons (such as pom-pom making and weaving) to help children of all ages build a DIY arsenal, a handy guide to must-have tools and materials, and a source directory.

The Sweetest Little Life Courtney Hanson,2018-08-14 Do you know the path you're on? Is it a clear, freshly paved cement road? Is it more of a dusty desert storm with tumble weeds blowing everywhere and smacking you in the face as you try to walk? Either way, this book is for you. Finding your direction is crucial in creating your personal brand or small business. How do we know which way to run if we can't even walk properly first? Do you know how you work best? How you thrive? By the end of this journey my goal is to have you feeling inspired, motivated, and excited to wake up each day and live the life you've always dreamed of creating for yourself. The questions that are hard to answer when your mind feels cluttered - were sweeping the storm.

Without Looking Too Far Matthew Henningsen,2007 The line that separates good and evil has become blurred over the past fifty years. It happened so gradually that most people didn't even see it coming. Many people still don't know it has occurred. The moral atmosphere in America has become decayed and deteriorated. Something must be done before we reach the point of no return. This book contains chapters for grandparents, parents, children to age 12, teenagers, young adults, teachers, religious leaders, police, attorneys, medical profession, business executives, employees, internet, entertainment, newspapers, TV journalists, professional athletes and the government. Sex, drugs, murders, corporate corruption, racial inequality and political shenanigans are just a few things covered in this book. Virtually every area of our lives has been infected with evil, from computers and sports to the greatest tragedy Americans have witnessed, September 11, 2001. Just in case September 11th wasn't enough of a wake-up call to all Americans, this book will surely open many eyes to the evil that surrounds our great country. It's time to wake up and smell the coffee. It's time for all Americans to join hands, hearts, minds and voices to eliminate the evil that has taken up residence in this wonderful land we all call home. If we succeed in our efforts, we will, once again, become a beacon of love, freedom, morality and truth to the entire world. If we fail in our efforts, we will be doomed! The choice is yours.

Pops Craig Melvin,2021-06-15 A deeply personal exploration of fatherhood, addiction, and resiliency from Craig Melvin, news anchor of NBC's Today show. For Craig Melvin this book is more an investigation than a memoir. It's an opportunity to better understand his father; to interrogate his family's legacy of addiction and despair but also transformation and redemption; and to explore the challenges facing all dads--including Craig himself, a father of two young children. Growing up in Columbia, South Carolina, Craig had a fraught relationship with his father. Lawrence Melvin was a distant, often absent parent due to his drinking as well as his job working the graveyard shift at a postal facility. Watching sports and tinkering on Lawrence's beloved (but unreliable) 1973 Pontiac LeMans were two ways father and son connected, but as Lawrence's drinking spiraled out of control, their bond was stretched to the breaking point. Fortunately, Craig had a loving, fiercely protective mother who held the family together. He also had a series of surrogate father figures in his life--uncles, teachers, workplace mentors--who by their examples helped him figure out the kind of person and father he wanted to be. Pops is the story of all these men--and of the inspiring fathers Craig has met reporting his Dads Got This Series on the Today show. Pops is also the story of Craig and Lawrence Melvin's long journey to reconciliation and understanding, and of how all these experiences and encounters have informed Craig's understanding of his own role as a dad.
